Good morning my friend
I hope you slept well
I hope that you woke up so happy
Do you still fell the light and the wind
The smell in the air of a new day

You are where I'm going to
I am who you will be tomorrow
A newer version of you
Yourself seven years from now

Don't be afraid for me
Pay attention to what's next
Probably they are all sons of the same whore
Take control of your life
Is the only thing that matter
Without you I cannot live
Take my advice

A lot of friend will be lost
And every beat of the time
Will help us not to forget
I lot of fights will be win
And memory of you
Will make me grow up stronger

You are where I'm going to
I am who you will be tomorrow
A newer version of you
Yourself seven years from now

Don't be afraid for me
Pay attention to what's next
Probably they are all sons of the same whore
Take control of your life
Is the only thing that matter
Without you I cannot live
Take my advice
