So don't ask me why
If I said goodbye
I'm not scared of feeling your eyes on me
Now you are too late
For this date
I'm not worried if it's saturday night

I'm not alone now
Fake smiles surround me

And I didn't want to be there
With all you've seen and heard
When you started falling down
I am alone now

So you promise a day
That you'll change your way
I'm not worried if you lost a part of me
I was on this story
To look for my glory
I don't care if you have played with me

It's over
I wish I could smile
And where's the reason?
I wish I could smile
And where's the reason?
It's the beginning

I'm not alone now
Statues next to me
