"Count These Demons"

Hoarse, talked for hours
I lost the power of speech
Telepathy, I can read you like a book
I can see the whites of your eyes
You talk for money, so don't, don't you speak.

Count these demons by name, I can see them when I sleep.
Count these demons by name, can you see them when you
Sleep...

For hours.
I've made this sour, so sleep.

A tragedy, I could feel this slowly turn.
I should breathe the poison that I made.
Slow, please don't hurry, just don't disappear.

Count these demons by name, I can see them when I
sleep.
Count these demons by name, can you see them when
you
Sleep...

The poison that I made takes time to disappear.
