We all got skeletons in our closets hanging next to that feel I'm falling
I got the form of the line of the roller coaster trying to talk ourselves out as we get closer
'cause the heart is getting on it.

You gotta call your hands enough, be brave enough
And for the way it's most to

Chorus:

'Cause I ain't going nowhere
I'm staying right here
I know you I'm scared but trust me
Would you made me hurt but I'm not hurt
I'm gonna show you how our love is supposed to be
Your heart is safe with me.
Safe with me, mhm yeah

We're all like scientist trying to fix us
So over realizing the bigger picture
Like Caddy you know when you found the one
Expecting everything underneath the sun
But perfect's only fiction.

You gotta call your hands up and call your bluff
'cause I know you want to.

Chorus:

I ain't going nowhere
I'm staying right here
I know you I'm scared, but trust me
Would you made you hurt but I'm not hurt
I'm gonna show you how our love supposed to be
Your heart is safe with me.
Oh oh yeah.

I'll go out, go on to love you,
No I'm not your enemy
If you let your pass distracts you
You never know how good it can be.

How good it cab be?

[Chorus:]

Safe with me.
