La da, La la, La da
Waking up, up
La da, La la, La da

Well it's time, for a change
Don't know those sad, sad songs away, today
Won't let the sunshine go to waste
No way, nooo way

Cuz I can feel my heart beating for the very first time
Everything around me starts falling in line
I feel alive, sooo alive
I just can't hide
Something change me, change me, change me,
Oh
Cuz lately, lately, lately

I've been wakin up to love
Every morning, I've been
Waking up to love
I can hear alarm clocks ringing
Through the window all the birds starts singing
Every morning we'll be
Wakin up to love
Don't you know that we'll be
Wakin up to love
At first I thought that I was dreaming
Then hit me like the coffee and the creamer
Waking up to
Love, love, love
Wakin up, up
Love, love, love (Wakin up)

Telling all my friends (la)
I can't believe the way my days begin
You can't put em on a scale of 1 to 10
You can't. Oh
From the very first moment that I opened my eyes
Everything about me just started to shine
I feel alive, so alive
It's no wonder why

[Chorus]

I've been wakin up to love
Every morning, I've been
Waking up to love
I can hear alarm clocks ringing
Through the window all the birds starts singing
Every morning we'll be
Wakin up to love
Don't you know that we'll be
Wakin up to love
At first I thought that I was dreaming
Then hit me like the coffee and the creamer
Waking up to

I wouldn't trade this feeling for the world
It's written on my face, and now
I'm a brand new girl
I'm a brand new girl

I've been wakin up to love
At first I thought that I was dreaming
Then hit me like the coffee and the creamer
Waking up to
Wakin up, up

Love, love, love
Wakin up, up
