We said our goodbyes
And we got to leaving
We don't mind if we're back here again
We got our backs off the wall
And we got no worries
Sleep don't come easy
But nothing in life ever does

So we packed all our bags
And we started walking
We don't mind
If we don't get there at all
Hey now, you're right, man
I think it's time for a change
It's not that hard to pack up
And start over again
We're well on our way as
We're on the edge of the night

As I walked through the door
The lights were so blinding
Lifetimes of memories have just past me by
So I pushed out that night
And it started raining
I said I know there's this place we can hide

So we packed all our bags
And we started walking
We don't mind
If we don't get there at all
Hey man, I said that
I'm sorry for causing you pain
You say that your changing
We both know you still act the same
You can't deny that
We're on the edge of the night

So we packed all our bags
And we started walking
We don't mind
If we don't get there at all

We packed all our bags
And we started walking
We don't mind
If we don't get there at all

Hey now you're right man
I think its' time for a change
It's not that hard to pack up
And start over again
We're well on our way as
We're on the edge of the night
