Well I've been lost before,
My time is up and I am gone again

Did you get, did you get, did you find out?
Oh-oh brother do ya?

Back in the days when we was young,
Back in the place we started from
What a time, what a time, what a time we had...
Oh be that as it may

We found a better way to get
It in before your time is through
Your time to laugh is over now,
You've turned around to see the joke's
On you, on you

You can't forget yourself, she's all ya got
You can't forget yourself, she's all ya got

And it all goes back to me in ways
Just like, just like
The good old days

Did you get, did you did, did you get off?
You can tell me, tell me do ya?

Back in the place when we was young,
Back in the place we started from

What a life, what a life, what a life we had,
But-uh be that as it may

Seems like everyone is trying hard to Find some place to hide
But we never cared for that,
We never let them come break our lives,
Our lives

You can't forget yourself, she's all ya got
You can't forget yourself, she's all ya got

You can't forget yourself, she's all ya got
You can't forget yourself, she's all ya got
You can't forget yourself, she's all ya got
