So amazing Amazing to me(x3)

So amazing(x4)

I'm not the type of fussing
With everyday to somethnig
Easy come and easy go
Turn eye and change the day
The light that change the path
Turn round and dump it's head
Fit the script in this world

Confused, left out in the dark (oh yeah) Never could I see it getting better Then you, you became the spot The road that brought the since forever

Ooooh

I've been searching for so long Cause everything was wrong So crazy Deep inside a life of misery Found it hard to breath Now everything has changed

It was just Just another ordinary day Amazing Then I just forhot the Life all got the lovers to stay Amazing

You see me through and through You've got your issues too Oh, let's point to the stars Cos with new us Comes nem problems New people who we are Thre's nothing that we cannot be By now there's only just one word That I can find Amazing Somehow you open up my eyes And read my mind And nothing looks the same

Chorus

It was you Just one look And turn my life around

You got my body Bumping into my sound Amazing

There's no time
Nothing in this time world like what we are feeling
Shout it out
I've set
Somehow love will find a way find a way
