"I Stand Defiant"

I stand, defiant. Reject their lies. My body broken, but I push on. Alone and Hated in a world gone wrong. I rise

Fall rise back up. Caught in a cycle of doubt and regret,
A prison of hate that I can't escape. Gotta find a way to Break out. I fucking rise above. I fucking stand alone

And hated. Defiant. Nothing that I see is real to me, Imitating permanence. So I find myself escaping, I live For today, because tomorrow may never come. I live today,
I stand defiant.
