People make mistakes
Finding everything breaks
And it always is the same
Gotta find someone to blame
Cause these errors that we make
Cause we're all human earthquakes
Yeah we made the hurricane
Yet we're not the ones to blame
GO!

We point the finger even though it's not polite
We condemn the Son of God we're hoping two wrongs
make a right

Maybe
Maybe it is them
Maybe
Or Maybe it is me
Maybe
Or maybe it's maybeline
Or maybe it's maybeline

Maybe
Or Maybe it is them
Maybe
Or Maybe it is me
Maybe
Or maybe it's maybeline
Or maybe it's maybeline

People make mistakes
We took the apple from the snake
And it always is the same
Gotta find someone to blame
Our reputations were at stake
But the guilt we could not take
America's gone down the drain
Presidents at fault again

We point the finger even though it's not polite
We condemn the Son of God we're hoping two wrongs

make a right

Maybe
Maybe it is them
Maybe
Or Maybe it is me
Maybe
Or maybe it's maybelline
Or maybe it's maybelline

Maybe
Or Maybe it is them
Maybe
Or Maybe it is me
Maybe
Or maybe it's maybelline
Or maybe it's maybelline

The truth is excuses are lame
Accept consequence
Accept the blame
We're all sinners
We're all unclean
Well maybe we're born with it
Or maybe it's maybelline

Or Maybe
Maybe it is them
Maybe
Or Maybe it is me
Maybe
Or maybe it's maybelline
Or maybe it's maybelline
