I was thinking, over thinking
Cause there's just many scenarios
To analyze, look in my eyes
Cause your my dream please come true
I was thinking, over thinking
About exactly how i'm not exactly him
I'll break my heart in two
More times than you could ever do
Cause your my dream please come true
Cause i think way too much
On a one track mind
And your so out of touch
Cause i'm so far behind
[Chorus]
I can't deny this any more
The facts ignored all done before
And if there's one in this world
You let me know you're not that girl
I was sinking, lower sinking
Cause i lost the things i held on to
They let me think a thought
A thought that i would know was not
Of seeing my dream come true
I was thinking, over thinking
About how far i had let this go
One more guy/girl cliché
I know now you're just in the way
Of me and my dream come true
Cause i think way too much
On a one track mind
And your so out of touch
Cause i'm so far behind
I'm trying to make sense
Out of all of this
While your fading scent
Just slips through my grip
[Chorus]
Don't touch the positive with a negative end
Don't touch the positive with a negative end
Cause after all of the sparks you're left alone in the dark

And while i'm able i think i'll label
Experience with you as a mistake
And while im at it, i'll say ive had it
Experience with you as a mistake
Cause i think way too much
On a one track mind
And your so out of touch
Cause i'm so far behind
I'm trying to make sense
Out of all of this
While your fading scent
Just slips through my grip
I was thinking, over thinking
Cause there's just too many scenarios
To think about, to figure out
If you're my dream please come true
