"By The Fire"

We've been friends
For so long I dread our days apart
They consume me like a spell from a broken wand
Just spit it out
Well you know I've never been much good with words
Actions always been far easier

So kiss me hard
Before I change my mind
Or I think better of it
I've wanted you for so long
Wanted you to be the one that does it
Oh, Hermione Granger, don't you think about him
Put down Hogwarts, A History
And sit down by the fire
Come, let's make a fire

It's okay

Meet me by the lake and we can talk
I could listen for hours just to watch your mouth
I'm not the only one who feels this way
But every time I touch your hand I think,
"Today I'll take a stand"

So kiss me hard
Before I change my mind
Or I'll think better of it
I've wanted you for so long
Wanted you to be the one that does it
Oh, Hermione Granger, don't you think about him
Put down Hogwarts, A History
And sit down by the fire
Come, we'll make a fire
