We're gonna miss you Cedric
We're gonna miss you Cedric
Wore different colors
Though our cause was the same
Facing off against dragons
We both turned out okay
Allies, still, even after you stole my girl
We were lost champions as the vile plan unfurled
Like flags from different houses
Traded clues so we'd turn out okay
Okay

We're gonna miss you Cedric
We're gonna miss you Cedric

Held my breath underwater and as we won
We both touched that Portkey
And then all at once it was

"Wands out" and a flash of green light
This was the last way I expected to spend that night
Many others, they wore your pin
We all supported the true champion
I know you tried to make Hogwarts proud
So I'll keep them singing, yeah, sing it out loud:

"Remember Cedric Diggory
Remember Cedric Diggory
Oh, remember Cedric Diggory
Remember..."

I just couldn't leave him there
I just couldn't leave him there
I just couldn't leave him... there.
