I'll be alright if you will stay with me tonight oh my favorite neon lights never glowed upon those eyes my words are slurred and my cover's been blown oh just please don't leave me all alone

Could I please spend this one last night with you since you've got nothing better to do under this circumstance we could give it a chance we're the last two on the floor
to dance

Oh years they gone by we both gave it a try in the end we both know there's a shift of the tide my speech done got worse and my words fall like stones oh just

you've got nothing better to do under this circumstance
to dance

Oh I had to leave town, didn't want to, and the devil came knockin' at my door

you've got nothing better to do under this circumstance
to dance
