It started out like high school date
The sun was down it was getting late
Are ya feeling just a little bit crazy

She said, tell me what do you got in mind
What kind of trouble do you think we'd find
I'm sure there's plenty out there baby

Now how ya gonna feel alive if ya dont have danger
Ya know that I took a chance to give my number to a Stranger like you

A chill rushed in through the window,
To warn us what was ahead
Thrill was running through our veins now
Like newlyweds' first time in bed

Tell me how you're ever gonna feel alive
If you don't take a chance into the dark
Baby oh you know i'm just a little bit scared of falling

Falling so hard, hands behind my back,
You know I can't break the fall
Holding you under the stars
Freezing from the trouble we fell into in that ice river
Oh you felt me shiver
But I held on tight, tell me how could I forget that night

Remember how we left our shoes
Forgot about all our issues
I carried you and almost fell in

Soaking wet and looking good
Eyes looking where I know they shouldn't Sorry I couldn't help but give in

Tell me how you're ever gonna feel alive
If you don't take a chance into the dark
Baby oh you know i'm just a little bit scared of falling

Falling so hard, hands behind my back,
You know I can't break the fall

Holding you under the stars
Freezing from the trouble we fell into in that ice river
Oh you felt me shiver
But I held on tight, tell me how could I forget that night

It's a battle of heads verses hearts
We know that we'll soon be apart
But right now the moments too right
I hope that our hearts win the fight

Falling so hard, hands behind my back,
You know I can't break the fall
Holding you under the stars
Freezing from the trouble we fell into in that ice river
Oh you felt me shiver
But I held on tight, tell me how could I forget that night
