You puncture with a love so sharp it feels real
Adding to the holes left from long ago
So what you give goes through me like a sieve
You pour it out as if you'll overflow
But you can't see, you can't see, you can't see
That it's not the same for me
Kiss me and I'll fall apart
Breakaway glass inside this heart
Custom-made to save my skin
Preventing me from ever letting you in

You peel away all the layers to reveal
The chips and cracks I dare not to let show
These damaged goods I return to you again
You toss them out pretending not to know

But you can't see, you can't see, you can't see
That it's not the same for me
Kiss me and I'll fall apart
Breakaway glass inside this heart
Custom-made to save my skin
Preventing me from ever letting you in

You still think that you can find a window or an open door
But reluctant walls surround so that you cannot even reach me anymore...

Kiss me and I'll fall apart
Breakaway glass inside this heart
Custom-made to save my skin
Preventing me from ever letting you in

Preventing me from ever letting you in (repeated four times)
Oh....
Kiss me and I'll fall apart
Kiss me and I'll fall apart...
