The stage is set now in your room
Boom box blares out a rockin' tune
It's a sold-out stadium show
In a world that only you know
Squeeze into those shiny pants
Let that strobe light blind your eyes
Personality amplified
Hey you! You're a rock star!

Don't need a record, don't need a hook,
You just need to know how to look
Full-length mirror you like what you see
'Cause it's your personal MTV

Jump off the bed and strike a pose
Smash another air guitar
Personality amplified
Hey you! You're a rock star!

Yeah...
Hello Cleveland. Um... Are you ready to rock and roll?
Come on, I can't hear you out there
Yeah, I'm feeling a little bit hot tonight...
You know...
Are you all ready to rock and roll all night?
I reach down between my legs and...
Rock you like a hurricane. Come on, baby...
Rock and roll! Come on! Baby, baby!
Rock and roll! Come on! Come on!

Squeeze into those shiny pants
Let that strobe light blind your eyes
Personality amplified
Hey you! You're a rock star!

Jump off the bed and strike a pose
Smash another air guitar
Hey you! Hey you!
Hey you! You're a rock star!
