There is a happy land where only children live
They don't have the time to learn the ways
Of you sir, Mr. Grownup

There's a special place in the rhubarb fields underneath the leaves
It's a secret place and adults aren't allowed there, Mr.
Grownup
Go away, sir

Charlie Brown got's half a crown, he's gonna buy a kite Jimmy's ill with chicken pox, and Tommy's learned to ride his bike Tiny Tim sings prayers and hymns, he's so small we don't notice him
He gets in the way but we always let him play with us

Mother calls, but we don't hear There's lots more things to do It's only 5 o'clock, and we're not tired yet
But we will be, very shortly

Sissy Steven plays with girls, someone made him cry Tony climbed a tree and fell, trying hard to touch the sky
Tommy lit a fire one day, nearly burned the field away Tommy's mum found out, but he put the blame on me and Ray

There is a happy land where only children live You've had your chance and now the doors are closed
sir, Mr. Grownup
Go away, sir

Boo, boo, boo, boo doop ...
