If you want,
I'll stay far away from you.
Hold my tongue or slice it up.
If that's what you want,
Then I'll stay far away from you
Ground the things we set
Aloft and burned them through.
A wasted premise: "we",
Drove until it died then passed it on.
But if it's really all that simple for you to destroy
Me

Then it looks to me like you are right where you wanted
To be
And it looks to me like it's not everything you thought
It would be.
So enjoy it, doll, you're free.
Enjoy it, doll, you're free.

If it's all the same
Then I'll stay far away from you
I've apologized for long enough
So what'd you expect?
Cause I can't feel that sorry for
Any guy who called me a slut.
You've learned to play the victim perfectly
If everything's my fault your not to blame.
For all your simpering diatribes of how I've caused you
So much pain...

It looks to me like you are right where you wanted to
Be
And it looks to me like it's not everything you thought
It would be.
