Well hi hello it's good to meet you Though I am sure that we've met before
I can't place your name and your face is unfamiliar But something in your handshake or your smile is similar
To that of my true companion
So don't tell me you're sorry,
Don't tell me you tried, don't confess to me your sins
Or reveal to me your lies
You never could hide nothing though often you tried
I saw you coming when I saw you smile
And I already forgive you for the crimes you will commit
In the name of love,
in the name of money,
in the name of song
In the name of you honey

And the big bad wolf is in the back seat
And when you look at him he's surprisingly slim and neat
He'll tell you how he ate grandma and how he wears her hat
How the exit works and where it's at
So if you're gonna go you better go now
Cause if you're still here when I turn around I'm gonna take you, take you down to my senses
Where I promise to render you defenseless
And please forgive me for the crimes I will
In the name of love,
in the name of money,
in the name of song
In the name of you honey

Yeah excuse me for thinking wide and freely
Though I tell you all still you're left wonderin'
About the thought, the mystery behind the eye
But what should I say, what should I do You're not looking for me and I'm not looking for you
And we must forgive us the crimes we will commit
In the name of love,

In the name of money,
In the name of song,
In the name of us, honey
