You've always made it on your own
It's all in your control
Everything on a roll till now

Never a problem you couldn't face
Two steps ahead of the race
Everything fell into place till now, till now

'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help

We're in this together
And I'll never let you down
I was always there
But you never looked around till now

'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes

We're only human
Nobody's perfect
You just got to realize it

'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes

'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
'Cause everybody needs a little help sometimes
