Girl I know you have been through a lot
Your heart's broke in two, yeah, I ain't forgot I've been hanging on and waiting
But I'm tired of hesitating when it comes to us
Girl I, thank God, might have what you want Maybe I do and maybe I don't
But I'm willing and I'm able
And my cards are on the table
So let's fall in love

You gotta walk out of the rain sometimes
You gotta try and make a change sometimes
From underneath a cloud the sun ain't never gonna
shine
You've gotta walk out of the rain sometimes

Girl I, thank God, might just be the one
To brighten your sky and bring out the sun
From a cup of love you're sipping
And it's time you started living
So let's drink it up
Girl I thank you have waited so long
You might've forgot just how to go on That's why I'm here to remind you
That all that stuff is behind you
And it's time for love

You gotta walk out of the rain sometimes
You gotta try and make a change sometimes
From underneath a cloud the sun ain't never gonna
shine
You gotta walk out of the rain sometimes
You gotta walk out of the rain sometimes
You gotta try and make a change sometimes
From underneath a cloud the sun ain't never gonna
shine
You gotta walk out of the rain sometimes
