You've got a view... got a dream... wanna live it
When all the pieces fall right into place
Maybe today
You've got a game plan you can take your time
You make your move when everything feels just right
Maybe tonight

I believe that you can change the world
But first you've gotta know yourself
What ya made of
I can see the light you're hiding
I believe it's time to show it now
What ya made of

Turn the page make a start it's a brand new day
When you're done you'll go down in history
Just wait and see
You've been waiting for this moment all your life
When your chance comes I know you won't think twice
Cos this is the time

I believe that you can change the world
But first you've gotta know yourself
What ya made of
I can see the light you're hiding
I believe it's time to show it now
What ya made of

Don't for a minute think it's gonna be an easy ride
But you'll survive
If you stumble all you need to do is look inside
I believe that you can change the world
But first you've gotta know yourself
What ya made of

I believe that you can change the world
But first you've gotta know yourself
What ya made of
I can see the light you're hiding
I believe it's time to show it now
What ya made of

What ya made of
Woah Yeahhhh
What ya made of Oooooohhhh
What ya made of

Thanks to feel
