I can't understand I don't understand Why the world keeps bringing me down Living life like an ocean Sometimes I feel like there's no way out

Going down like an airplane We wont stop till it hits the ground It's going out on the airwaves Somebody please save me now

In a world that never made much sense

We're all a little bit Crazy

Here we are the new melineum So plug in and lose your mind Download your new addiction A million ways we can waste our lives

In a world that never made much sense
