As I step into the club, everybody knows
Is about to go down real low, low, low
We gonna party all night, night
Like it's how we know,
DJ turn it up some more, more, more!
We got bottles in the air, you already know
... the place, we are rocking... more
Cause the party is over here, time to hit the flow
Let it go!

So spread your wings, we're about to fly
We can't go wrong tonight, tonight!
Tonight we're free, to love our lives,
Were just in time, time

Chorus:
All we want is to dance,
Don't they know this is love?
Don't they know this is love?
We never get enough, you already know
We got this whole damn place yelling oh more, more
So we all stand up, time to hit the flow
And let it go!

So spread your wings, we're about to fly
We can't go wrong tonight, tonight!
Tonight we're free, to love our lives,
Were just in time, time

Chorus:
All we want is to dance,

Don't they know this is love?
Don't they know this is love?
We never get enough, you already know
We got this whole damn place yelling oh more, more
So we all stand up, time to hit the flow
And let it go!

... light's all shining
Time is just away

... are no boundaries, close your eyes
Imagine we're forever young!

We gonna burn up the place,
We gonna burn it, like it's burning
DJ turn up the place, place, place!
We gonna party 'till they shut it
We gonna burn up the place,
We gonna burn it, like it's burning
DJ turn up the place, place, place!

Chorus:
All we want is to dance,
Don't they know this is love?
Don't they know this is love?
We never get enough, you already know
We got this whole damn place yelling oh more, more
So we all stand up, time to hit the flow
And let it go!
Love, love, love, this is love!
Love, love, love, this is love!
