I've been wrapping my head around this for so long I've forgotten what it was that was ticking me off from the start

Well I don't know, I don't know
You think it's probably best to stick with the rest
And never look up or think for yourself
Cause it's hard to cut back
Once you've reached the edge

Well step right up this way
We've committed the perfect crime
Just a global contagion
And you're the next in line

Nothing said
It's our mentality
Behind the big
Neglect
No mutual
Responsibility
Just silenced shouts
Well I object

And as economy fails to uphold our countries walls
We simply grab what we can get
From the powerless and leave them to starve
That's how we roll, that's how we roll
And we don't wanna seem cruel so we'd like to compete
For as long as it's cool that we compete with the rules we've made
Cause if you'd win we'd be pathetic fools, and that's just it

Well step right up this way
We've committed the perfect crime
Just a global contagion
And you're the next in line

Well step right up this way
Come see the lovely view from this height

We're getting standing ovations
We're flying high tonight

Nothing said
It's our mentality
Behind the big
Neglect
No mutual
Responsibility
Just silenced shouts
Well I object
