Puddles of blue
Your intense eyes look up through your hair
It's just a frozen picture I keep in my mind
And I'm no longer allowed to stare, allowed to care
But without your golden waves I'm colorblind

Chorus:

And since I can't have you, don't be beautiful
And if I can't love you, don't be so right
And if I can't see you, don't be beautiful, no
Please don't haunt me if I can't hide

'Cause I'd do anything to forget, but I have you memorized
Despite of every layer that I've finally shed
I must admit that I'm still mesmerized

Repeat Chorus

'Cause I'd do anything to forget those puddles of blue
Your intense eyes look up through your hair
It's just a frozen picture I keep in my mind
And I'm no longer allowed to stare, allowed to care
But without your golden rays, I'm colorblind

Repeat Chorus

I can't let go of the past
I was the only one truly in love
With your every movement, your every breath
And I never, I never gave up
