You can't walk away from me once I get inside your head
You might not be listening, but soon you will Don't look past me before lookin'
Into a future without lovin'
Could you handle the regret and do it alone

Chorus:

You say you don't need me
I never cross your mind
You say you're doin' fine
I know that's a lie
If you will give it time
I will solidify
The many reasons why
There's more than meets the eye

One step in my direction, come back now if you want to feel
Better than those who feel so good, better than you do

Repeat Chorus

And you say that I won't, but I will
And you're holdin' me back, but I still think That I could be all you need

You can't walk away from me once I get inside your

Repeat Chorus
