Though it may seem
You never denied me of anything
You said in your worthless lie
Better stay with your own and I'll stay with mine

But if only we could just leave from this place
And step away from your black "frivoled" sky
If only we could just leave from this place
And step away from your black "frivoled" sky

Better watch what you say
You might just find out your words have no worth
You said in your miserable lie
Better stay with yours and I'll stay with mine

But if only we could just leave from this place
And step away from your black "frivoled" sky
If only we could just leave from this place
And step away from your black "frivoled" sky

Such a mistake
Such a mistake to spend time on you
Such a mistake
Such a mistake to spend time on you

But if only we could just leave from this place
And step away from your black "frivoled" sky
If only we could just leave from this place
And step away from your black "frivoled" sky
