Break!

Can we ever forgive love for its pain
A tragic poem that forever burns on my brain
The city's sweat is scaring her into her dreams
As the song string the filler quiet evening.

Let me out, put your words on fire till I'm dead I'm unattainable and crippled with desire To float away from this mother fucking human world
As you wonder as she laughs I guess I caught her crying

I am not your savior
But I'm crippled with desire

Let the smile give her everything she needs
But I'm the song, the song she doesn't want to sing Forgive me as, I burn into the evening.
And run from love, and take the field of pain
In these words, tearing me and make me bleed Then we'd see as if you'll come and find me light it enters mentally emotion

As I watch the sun fuck the ocean crying

I am not your savior
but I'm crippled with desire
cuz I'm not your savior not the wonder now I sit here crippled with desire With desire x2

Desire x6

I am not your savior
but I'm crippled with desire
cuz I'm not your savior Wish that I was now I sit here crippled with desire

Crippled with desire x2
