Can the gracious night, learn to protect us
The sun sealed the day, after painting canvas sky
beautifully
And now I watch the people rolling by my window Wondering if they have found what they are looking for Cause everyone has, has that song inside that will forever
Keep us alive

So where are you oh my listless one Are you still there, writhing in what is gone because If we don't go within, then we may go without Elation left to follow the silhouette of some birds Pertruding in the evening perhaps searching for A new world before, before they die Because everything wants, to give its gift to this silent world
Before they die..
Die...

Where are you oh listless one are you still there, writhing. Sing a sad song and we'll protect our love, and oh how I fall for The rolling hills covered in nothing, green grass
Where our thoughts will intouch our skin

Can the gracious night learn to protect us
The sun sealed the day, after painting canvas sky
beautifully
And now I watch the people rolling by my window Wondering if they have found what they are looking for
forever
Keep us alive...
Cause everything wants to give its gift to this silent
Before they die...
