"Dear Eliza"

Dear Eliza burned
To the ground
Did you see her
Staring back at me
With eyes wide shut
I know she had a love
A post traumatic thirst for blood
But this wont change a thing

She calls out into the night
Her green eyes fade to white
This will be your last night
Say goodbye not goodnight

She screamed out loud
Horror choked the crowd
Faces turned to white
Glowing in the night
And she cried the moment
That she died and
Sang her last goodbyes
To the sky above

She calls out into the night
Her green eyes fade to white
This will be your last night
Say goodbye not goodnight

When you breathe
The noose ties
Around your neck
You're a liar baby
A liar at your best
