[Bridge]

It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex
It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex
Baby open up those legs
It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex
Baby open up those legs
It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex

[Verse 1]

Chilling in the bed still got your shoes on
Pillow on your head, this ain't Marvin's Room hun
I can make you cry but they're tears of joy
Beatchu with my sword you can call me young Troy
Be my Angelina I can be your Mister Smith
Take you to my island but I ain't adapting kids
Once we sail off, I'll be digging for your treasure
Got nothing to do with love it's all about the pleasure
Do it with no hands, spatula in my pants
Stack 'em crabby patties, cat daddy on my lap
Jerk shawty jerk, baby keep on dancing
What they call lust you think is romantic

[Hook]

Baby open up those legs
To put my heart in it
Cause right now we ain't speaking
Baby open up those legs
And put my brain in it
Cause right now we ain't thinking
Baby open up those legs
To put my tongue in right
Cause right now we ain't kissing
Baby open up those legs
And put my heart in it
Cause right now we kicking

[Verse 2]

New position, cops is listening
Body lifted, gotchu twisted
Lights is off, rubber on Water running now you coming

Grooving to the music while you lose it
Hold your head
Baby where you going let me cuff you like the feds
Put your hands up, girl remain silent
I'ma put it to your neck just like a violin
Then you gon sing and I'll be howling
3 layers thick you can call me your new trident
Chew baby chew, go and pop that gum
Promise I won't ever leave if you'll always cum
Key in your pants I'll go through that lock
Just keep the door open so I'll never have to knock

[Hook]

[Bridge]

Baby open up those legs
It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex
Baby open up those legs
It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex
Baby open up those legs
It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex
Baby open up those legs
It's all about you, it's all about me, it's all about sex
