Sitting here staring at these four walls
Six silver strings and four fat chords
I opened up the door and golly G
There was this goddess staring back at me
I went for an F but she looked like A minor
It was then that I thought well nothing could be finer
She told me her name it was Caroline
Now my favourite position? C six with a nine
I plucked a few strings, she began to whine
I knew by now I had her on the line
She said Now honey well there aint no danger
Dont you realise Im A Major?
Well DDD, Im as happy as a king
Well she didnt fret as I was slidin my thing
Now all you people if you think it through
Well EEE, the jokes on you
Now these four walls, yeah theyre my best friend cause it all came good, came good in the end
Yeah me
