Walked out the door with my suitcase packed

Got to the corner, met myself coming back

No matter what I do

These shoes keep a-walkin back to you

Thought I'd be happy if I got away

Each time I try I find my feet go astray

My departures overdue

These shoes keep a-walkin back to you

These shoes got a mind of their own

These shoes find their way to your home

These blues got a hold on my heart

No matter what I do I just can't make a brand new start

Because

You put these tears in my eyes

Too many guys and too many lies

No matter what you do

These shoes keep a-walkin back to you

These shoes got a mind of their own .

Because

You put these tears in my eyes .
