I feel like these days are full of sadness what am i supposed to do i refuse all my madness i feel like ill never have someone to stop me forever i feel like i need to drop what hurts me

(Chorus)
Stop the things youve done to me stop it now and do it again NEVER im never coming home to you you dont deserve me these scars bind me and you can never catch me

Todays the day i throw it all away i think todays the day i give it away its time to put the past where it belongs wave good bye and say my so-longs

(Chorus)

(Bridge)
Im never going alone im never coming home its time for my glamour and I do it all alone

I have much better things to do than to go home I swear the things no one ever told me hurt most Its the smiles now that wont haunt me its the people that care that help it never catch me
