With you
I see
Myself
Fading

Into something I promised I'd never be
You've changed my life, why can't you see?
I hate the way you treated me
That's why we'll never be

You broke my heart
Right in two
And you ask why
I'm not with you
You tried to get me back
But I refused
'Cuz I was tired of
All the abuse

Cuz with you
I saw
Myself
Fading

It's done, It's over
And I am through
And if you wonder
Yes this song is about you
