I've been wasting all this time
Worrying about you
3 years of my life went by
I wasted them on you

You promised nothing but good times
But your stories, they fell through
These little words they burn us now
A simple i love you

(Chorus)
You played with my mind
I had to much to find
You've wasted my time
But now I'm fine

I haven't seen you in so long
I haven't thought about you

Than when i realized i should try
I couldn't live without you
