I'll hold my breath
I'll make a wish
I won't forget the worlds that existed
Once here,
Now they're gone
Inside my mind they'll keep going on

They won't look at me
They don't hold my hand
Cuz they don't really want to understand
I count back from ten and there,
Where they never go

I won't be wasting all my time
Waiting around for what is mine
We won't be wasting all our time
Hanging around

Through space time and the centuries
We've seen the kingdoms, been the majesties
Fires in the sky,
Holes in the ground
Inside the deepest seas, we've dived down
A lifetime 100,000 years
Our ghosts will always find each other here
I count back from ten and there,
Where they never go

I won't be wasting all my time
Waiting around for what is mine
We won't be wasting all our time
Hanging around

Tell me it's a dream
I should let go
Dreams are more than dreams
I know, I know
It was just a dream
I won't let go
Dreams are more than dreams
I know, I know

I won't be wasting all my time
Waiting around for what is mine
We won't be wasting all our time
Hanging around

Tell me it's a dream
I should let go
Dreams are more than dreams
I know, I know
It was just a dream
I won't let go
Dreams are more than dreams
I know, I know, I know
