Every time I hear the sound of the rain

Beating on my roof again

I want to taste your love

And I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep

Every time I lift my eyes to the sky

Something in my heart asks why

I want to know the truth

And I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep

Like the footprints

Disappearing from the sand

I try to catch the thought

It slips right through my hand

And as the darkness

Throws its cloak upon the ground

I start to run to you

I've got to take you down

I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep

Every time I feel I'm losing my way

The power of your love remains

I want to touch your love

An' I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep

Deep

I want to go deep
