Walking home with you last night

You said the world is beautiful

And how things look that way when you're

Love

I love this world

When I'm in your arms

Is this heaven?

I opened up the letter that the

Postman gave to me this morning

Had to stop myself from shouting out

"I love this world"

When I'm in your arms

Is this heaven?

When I'm in your arms

Is this heaven?

I know that heaven waits

For those whose love is true

I want to be there when

The age love is come again

Tell me all about yourself

And how you came to me like in a dream
And every night I dream of you
I dream of you
When I'm in your arms
Is this heaven?
When I'm in your arms
Is this heaven?
I know that heaven waits
For those whose love is true
Don't ask me where or when
The time for us will come again
I sit and watch the sun go down
And in the darkness there's no sound
While in the sky tonight the stars all cry "I love
You"
Are they crying out over you
'Cos you're in my heart
Is this heaven?
'Cos the story starts and ends with you
