Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

No chance for a second chance

When the arrows start to fly

No way is an easy way

To say goodbye

No dream is ever lost

If you never cease to try

Never thought you would walk away

From my side

I just can't hide from

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Life is ever changing

Nothing stays the same

Nothing in this whole wide world

Can turn us back again

Cos where we're standing now

Is the point of no return

Looking back on a world that's

Got to learn

You just can't hide from

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Love is the shield

When you're standing

With your back to the wall

And if you turn around

And walk away

You're never gonna lose

Cos love conquers all

No chance for a second chance

When the arrows start to fly

No way is there an easy way

To say goodbye

No dream is ever lost

If you never cease to try

Never thought you would walk away

From my side

I just can't hide from

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
