John Lodge)

It's a hard life

Never let yourself get down

You may never get back

You may never ever turn it round

You may say it took you by surprise

Never ending

Never changing

I didn't see through your disguise

(It took my breath away)

Under my feet (under my feet)

The earth shook

Under my feet (under my feet)

The earth just fell away

Under my feet (under my feet) gave way

Did you never ever want to take a chance

Never thought the time would come round

Quite so fast

Would you walk right through that wall

And keep on walking till you

Couldn't stand on your feet no more

But you came and took me by surprise

When you stole up on me

I didn't see through your disguise

It took my breath away

Under my feet (under my feet)

The earth shook

Under my feet (under my feet)

The earth just fell away

Under my feet (under my feet) gave way

Where were you

When I needed you (when I needed you)

Where were you

When I needed you (when I wanted you)

Where were you

Where were you - I'm holding on

Under my feet (under my feet)

The earth shook

Under my feet (under my feet)

The earth just fell away

Right under my feet (under my feet) gave way

Under my feet

Under my feet

The earth shook

Right under my feet - the earth gave way
