Better Days

Wake Up, lookin' to my mirror, Am I smaller?
Did I lose some weight? Are pimples on my face?
Is my hair gon' act right today, is my jeans gon' fit round my waist
Is my boss man gon' trip on me, 'coz I can't afford the day care monthly
I don't know what it takes, But whatever it takes to do anything

Every time I don't wanna come up
They say something tryna knock me down
I keep my head up high; keep my hands on a cross
'Coz I know there's something special for me

Sometimes I feel like I can't take no more
Sometimes I feel like I just can't win
I'm gon' be strong (I'm gon' work harder)
'Coz there'll be better, there'll be better days
There is no way I'm givin' up
'Coz there'll be better, there'll be better days
I'm gon' be strong I'm gon' work harder (There'll be better days)

I'm dealing with bills 'coz they weight above my head
I keep dealing with these problems with my friend
I'm tryna go to school, I'm tryna work a job
I'm doing all that I can, It's me against the odds
Look at somebody and say (I love you)
We all in this together (we gon' make through)
'Coz we reaching our spirits and we reaching our minds
This is all that we do, all we know there's a grime

Every time I don't wanna come up
They say something tryna knock me down
I keep my head on high, keep my hands on a cross
'Coz I know there's something special for me

Sometimes I feel like I can't take no more
Sometimes I feel like I just can't win
I'm gon be strong (I'm gon' work harder)

'Coz there'll be better, there'll be better days
There is no way I'm giving up
'Coz there'll be better, there'll be better days
I'm gon' be strong I'm gon' work harder (There'll be better days)

You can defeat all your problems
If you just believe you can solve 'em
Just keep the faith
You never know when (You never know when)
Your blessing is coming (Your blessing is coming)
I know that it's hard when you take the fall
You're in control, just brush it off
It's okay if tears, fallin' you win it
Know what you feelin', couldn't be it?

Sometimes I feel like I can't take no more
Sometimes I feel like I just can't win
I'm gon be strong (I'm gon' work harder)
'Coz there'll be better, there'll be better days
There is no way I'm giving up
'Coz there'll be better, there'll be better days
I'm gon' be strong I'm gon' work harder (There'll be better days)
