We have wandered this maze of mirrors for far too long
I keep walking and turning corners and getting lost
I've run into my reflection and better versions of ourselves
I keep trying to look away, but I can't help myself

And so I will send anonymous letters to a non-existent address
And pretend that you read them, but
You can't hear me through a mirror my love
You can't hear me through these mirrors my love
You can't hear me, could I scream loud enough?
You can't hear me, could you see clear enough?

Feet out first from behind the curtain
I think you're looking at me
I admit, yes, that I was upset
But now I'm able to breathe
I like the way you speak, so easy
With your tongue between your teeth, but Most of all I really love how you don't even know me

And so I will send anonymous letters to a non-existent address
And pretend that you read them, but
You can't hear me through a mirror my love
You can't hear me through these mirrors my love
You can't hear me, could I scream loud enough?
You can't hear me, could you see clear enough?

Ba dum ba dum ba, ba dum ba dum ba, ba dum ba
dum ba
Ba dum ba dum ba, ba dum ba dum ba, ba dum ba
dum ba

And so I will send anonymous letters to a non-existent address
And pretend that you read them, but
You can't hear me through a mirror my love
You can't hear me through these mirrors my love

You can't hear me, could I scream loud enough?
You can't hear me, will I ever be enough?
Will I ever be enough, enough, enough
Will I ever be enough?
Will I ever be enough
Enough is enough
