So this is you
And this is me
And we just met
And we're both pretending not to notice
That we haven't blinked once

No, not yet
And this is us
Strangers, walking down the street
And this is me pretending I'm not cold
And this is you, lending me your sweater
Smiling, as I thank you

You can't hide
You can't hide your heart
I see it stop
I see it stop and start

I know you feel the way I've felt for so long
I know you feel the way I've felt for so long
This is the way things go
This is the way we are
This is the way things go
This is the way we are

So this is you
And this is me
And this is us
And you are finally after so many months
Getting off that train
You promised you'd take to come see me

And this is me
Running to you
Making a scene
And this is me not caring at all
About what other people might think

And I can't hide
I can't hide my heart

I know you feel the way I've felt for so long
I know you feel the way I've felt for so long
This is the way things go
This is the way we are
This is the way things go
This is the way we are

This is you, this is you
This is me, this is you
This is me on the bridge where you kissed me

And I know you feel the way I've felt for so long
I know you feel the way I've felt for so long
Can't stand to be away from you
I hate it when you're gone
I know you feel the way I've felt for so long
