"Comfort Zone"

I've got a couch in my room
Flat screen tv and a laptop too
I play my guitars here at night
All inside these four walls, my bed is at my side
I've got my a.c blowin, mom is yelling something wrong
Forgot my pasta on the stove
Don't wanna leave my home, things have changed while I have grown
I see no rush to be alone

Every day's the same I know
You wait for me to leave here on my own, I also know
Give me time, I need space, and some room to grow
I never wanna leave

Welcome to my comfort zone
Breakfast on the table, my lunch is packed to go
This is my comfort zone
I wont stay forever, but forever's getting long

I need a reason to get me out
A fierce evacuation or a forclose on our house
I wonder where il be, living my life in 2023
I try to get back home, all I want's my comfort zone
I think I'll just stay here alone Don't wanna leave this house, it's been too long to leave here now
I don't see what the fuss is all about

Everyday's the same I know
You wait for me to leave here on my own, I also know
Give me time, I need space, and some room to grow,
to grow

Welcome to my comfort zone
Breakfast on the table, lunch is packed to go
This is my comfort zone
I wont stay forever, but forever's getting long
