My letter sits and stares
In the top droor
It's been months since I have written
She doesn't want no more
While I spiral down the stairs
I know I'm out the door
Doing all I can to stand
I'll leave the rest to the floor

Better luck next time
Keep your chain tight to the heart
Don't let your links break
Or your right back to the start

It's a good day for a drive
I might just go tonight
Where the musics always playing
And the drinks are all half priced
And maybe for a while
Il be lookin for her smile
I am doing things the right way
I know my mom is proud

Better luck next time
Keep your chain tight to the heart
Don't let your links break
Or your right back to the start

I'm never giving up
I'll fall asleep where you wake up
I'm never breakin down
Turn your face right back from a frown
I'm never givin in
I'll drive your car with the kids strapped in
