Hello I am here
I've been trying now for years
I left again but now I'm back
It's just my mind, a matter of fact
One day you will see
A difference in change in you and me
I let you down now here again
It's just my mind, I'll never win

I see your ghost, she can't fly by
I seat the host, I win this time
I play your games, so you'll play mine
I can't keep close, I can't decide
I need you now, more than described
I won't pull through, I've changed my mind

I'll wait and see
How I turn out to always be
Until then I am found
Turned around, upside, and down
Goodbye I am gone
I love you dearly but it's all wrong
I'm writing it here now in this song
Live your life, and live it long

I see your ghost, she can't fly by
I seat the host, I win this time
I play your games, so you'll play mine
I can't keep close, I can't decide
I need you now, more than described
I won't pull through, I've changed my mind

I'd like to stay, I really would
I'd like to stay I really wish I could Say it now here I'd like to stay
I really wish I could, I know
