You can do anything,
If you believe its true.
See what this friendship brings,
It can only get stronger when you work it through.

You can go anywhere,
Imagination will take you through.
Magic and mystery,
In the blink of an eye you could fly to the moon.

Out of all people in the world,
You're the chosen one,
Of every boy and girl.
Now your friends are here, your missions clear.
You're the guardian of the cards.

Everyday is a new adventure,
As you discover the magic you need.
You uncover the mystic secrets,
Where the power within is the will to succeed.

Yes this is your destiny,
This is what you were born to do.
Bring back the harmony,
To make a better world for me and you.

Out of all people in the world,
You're the chosen one,
Of every boy and girl.
Now your friends are here,
Your missions clear.
You're the guardian of the cards.

You're the Guardian of the cards,
You're the chosen one.
Yes you are,
No matter where you search.
Near or far,
You're the guardian of the cards.
